25X1	MEMORANDUM FOR: Col. A. H. White FROM: SUBJECT: Claim of Tr.	25X1
25 ×1	l. Attached are (1) a copy of a memorandum dated 9 April address) by the above claimant to the General Counsel, and (2) a copy of the memorandum dated 2 June addressed by Assistant General Counsel,
	2. In summery, the story is that Mr. was going to so a severt operation. His cover was blown and, at the last mement, he was pulled off the job. In the meantime, he had sold his homsehold effects at a loss, this action having been taken on the basis of erroneous information given him that he could not store his goods at Agency expense.	25 X 1
25X1	3. I have checked with he. who supports and entornes hr. claim.	25X1
	that the claim should be honored but who wrote his 2 June membrandum as a strictly legalistic reply after considerable consideration within his stars where the opinion revailed (although it was not unanimous) that the General Counsel's office should restrict itself to that kind of an a newer-	25X1
	5. In short, it appears that Hr. has suffered a loss through to fault of his own. That is, neither the cause of the cancellation of his mission nor the erroneous information he was given was his failt.	25X1
	6. As a matter of equity—as distinct from a strictly-interested legal position—I recommend that the claimant to reintursed. I can't believe that Agency regulations are so inflavible that a claim must be turned down on logalistic grounds when the facts in the case admittedly are reasonable. Such action, in my opinion, would be contrary to the lattineers as of the Agency.
.	7. As a point of incidental information, areattitude i quite reasonable. That is, he has nade no indignant, veherant statements out, rather, explained that he came to the affice of the Inspector leneral in the endeavor to find, if possible, a solution to an unfortunate situatio.	25X1
	8. It is my understanding that the Deputy Director(Administration) has the authority under sign off on small claims. The total of this claim is $411.95.	25X1
	9. In view of all the foregoing, I would appreciate it if, at our discretion, you would bring the present case to the attention of the toll with the recommendation that the claim be settled.
